

The PASA PTO presents

Family Night!!

Join us in the Parish Hall on

Thursday February 17 at 6pm

Come in your PJs and enjoy Cookies and Milk while listening to storyteller Carolyn Koerber tell the tale of The Knee High Man.

In this folktale from Alabama, Carolyn tells of a man named Billy who lives in a swamp and discovers one day that he is very small. Determined to get bigger, he seeks help from Brother Snake and Sister Alligator. When all his efforts fail, he decides to run away and finds himself lost and alone in a very dangerous part of the swamp. He learns to use his wits and to understand that his height is not a measure of his worth. Students develop listening and comprehension skills as they watch the story unfold.
